

Dear WWRP Clients and Friends,

September 2013

It's hard to believe we've been in business at WWRP for 40 years. When we started in 1973 surely no one was thinking about where we would be 40 years later. But successes over these years paved the road to more successes and four decades later Williams, Williams, Rattner & Plunkett boasts an exceptionally talented team of lawyers, and a phenomenal group of clients, many of whom have become close personal friends and associates.

All of this is due to the support, friendship, and confidence of our clients and the business they have entrusted to us. Without that support, WWRP would not be the successful, thriving law firm that it is today; we would not be able to employ the all-star talent that works on your legal issues nor participate in community support activities as we regularly do. Our partners and associates are involved in numerous civic, cultural, and charitable organizations throughout the southeast Michigan region, regularly giving of their time and their expertise to help others.

In celebration of our 40 years, and in honor of you and our many clients, WWRP has donated $40,000 distributed equally among four regional not-for-profits: the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Center; Grace Centers of Hope; The Community House in our home town of Birmingham, MI; and the Oakland County Bar Foundation. Each of these organizations does incredible work to improve the communities in which we live. We hope our contributions will help.

Thank you for choosing us to be your legal counsel. Thank you for allowing us to be part of your life or your business. Thank you for being part of our first 40 years. We appreciate your trust and your confidence and will do everything in our power to continue to earn it.

On behalf of the Firm, I remain,

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "R. Williams", written in a cursive style.

R. Jamison Williams
Managing Partner